

LEEDS Hate Crime Awareness WEEK 2023

#LeedsNoPlaceforHate

WEST YORKSHIRE
POLICE

Leeds City Council, West Yorkshire Police and partners across the city will be showcasing a week of training, engagement and events during National Hate Crime Awareness Week.

Friday 13th October

Event: Hate Crime Awareness Week Launch, 9.30am-12.00pm

The launch will focus on LGBT+ related hate. There will be an opportunity to hear from some key leaders on this agenda and then some round table activity to gain the views of event participants.

Venue: Banquet Suite, Civic Hall

Booking Details: Via Eventbrite

Saturday 14th October

Event: West Yorkshire Police Engagement, 10.00am-12.00pm

West Yorkshire Police Hate Crime Coordinators will be bringing their exhibition bus to outside Tesco in Seacroft where they can offer expert advice and support around hate crime to members of the public.

Venue: Tesco, Seacroft

Monday 16th October

Event: Migrant Access Project Hate Crime Training, 1.00pm-3.00pm

A session with the Safer Stronger Communities Team and West Yorkshire Police Strategic Engagement team with the Leeds Migrant Access Project looking at hate crime and how to report it for migrant communities.

Venue: Leeds Refugee Forum

Booking Details: Email jennifer.jennings@leeds.gov.uk

Thursday 19th October

Event: West Yorkshire Police Engagement, 10.00am-2.00pm

West Yorkshire Police Hate Crime Coordinators will be bringing their exhibition bus to Bramley Bus Station where they can offer expert advice and support around hate crime to members of the public.

Venue: Bramley Bus Station

Friday 20th October

Event: West Yorkshire Police Engagement, 11.00am-3.00pm

West Yorkshire Police Hate Crime Coordinators will be carrying out engagement with members of the public at Leeds Bus Station and also in Halton Moor where they can offer expert advice and support around hate crime.

Venues: Leeds Bus Station and Lidl Halton Moor

Event: Angels of Freedom Pop Up, 6.00pm-9.00pm

The Angels of Freedom charity will be hosting a pop up at Leeds Train Station with British Transport Police raising awareness of safety on the rail network, reporting Hate Crime and LGBT+ community projects.

Venue: Leeds Train Station